Attention Check

In order to facilitate our research, we are interested in knowing certain factors about you. Specifically, we are interested in whether you actually take the time to read the directions; if not, then the data we collect based on your responses will be invalid. So, in order to demonstrate that you have read the instructions, please ignore the next question (i.e. don't answer it), and simply write "I have read the instructions" in the box labeled "Any comments or questions?" Thank you very much.

Have you attended university?

- ☐ No I didn't attend.
- ☐ Yes, but I didn't graduate.
- ☐ Yes, I graduated.

(4.2) Haris | Improvement | Immigrant | ORDER 2

Imagine an individual named Haris. Haris is an Arab immigrant living in the United States. Haris is different from you in almost every way-- he has a different occupation and prefers different things than you.

Haris works in an environment that supports dishonest business practices. In the past, he too has participated in dishonest business practices. Now, however, Haris believes that it is wrong to engage in dishonest business practices and only behaves ethically.

In your opinion, what aspect of Haris' personality caused him to believe that it is wrong to engage in dishonest business practices and only behave ethically?

- ☐ His 'true self' (the deepest, most essential aspect of his being).
- ☐ His 'surface self' (the things that he learned from society or others).
- ☐ None of the above.

Now that Haris believes that it is wrong to engage in dishonest business practices and only behaves ethically, to what extent is he being true to the deepest, most essential aspects of his being?
